Panometer Dresden

As an industrial landmark, the Panometer Dresden is impressive enough. Combined with the 105 metre long and 27 metre high perfectly scaled 360° depictions of Dresden created by talented panorama artist, Yadegar Asisi, the former gasometer is transformed into the scene of unforgettable events. The projection is mesmerising, making the Panometer Dresden idea for receptions, gala dinners, balls, congresses and company celebrations for up to 500 people. Used as a large rotunda, auditorium or accompanying exhibition: the Panometer Dresden is a genuine chameleon amongst event locations and represents the ideal solution for gatherings of between 40 and 500 guests.
