Proschwitz Castle

Proschwitz Castle was built between 1703 and 1706. Consisting of a royal residence and the adjacent servant's quarters, the baroque landmarks are nestled amidst five hectares of heritage listed grounds that include both English and French landscaped gardens. The secluded ensemble is particularly suitable for exquisite and exclusive events of varying size. Meticulously renovated in full compliance with monumental protection guidelines, the event location is ideal for impressive, elegant conferences and festivities of all kinds.
