Campus Westend

With its extraordinary and unusual combination of traditional and modern architecture, 'Germany's prettiest campus' is perfect for events without peer. The expansive grounds are home to parks, water installations and festival halls of varying eras - ensuring every event is an unforgettable highlight.

That special experience – gatherings in the former office of Dwight D. Eisenhower! In addition to the more than 40 seminar and meeting rooms available, the campus also has auditoriums, the Casino conference rooms I and II covering 650 sqm each, terraces, parks and the Eisenhower Rotunda for approx. 150 people.
